DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP

CURES CONSUMPTION, CURES BRONCHITIS,

CURES COLDS, CURES ASTHMA,

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

I INVITE ATTENTION to some of the most extraordinary cures by my

PECTORAL SYRUP.

They are at home and any one who has doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.

DR. KEYSER IS PREPARED AT ANY TIME TO EXAMINE LUNGS, WITHOUT CHARGE, FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED HIS MEDICINE.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS.—A case of five years standing cured by

DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11th, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually iffreased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she has been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 16th, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicine in general, it affords me great pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a cold.

I have been more or less, in my life affected with the severest cold of hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this, medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that is the best medicine I ever found, purporting to cure the above; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES.
Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14th, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. IT KNOCKED THE NOISE OUT OF MY COUGH, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with; I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy.—You are at liberty to use my name in this regard, as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT.
Messenger, Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURG, May 11th, 1859.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

READ THE TRUTH—DR. KEYSER: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robison street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, December 31st, 1853.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county.—I had a coughing a nd spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months, I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had dispaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

Witness—B. M. KERR.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN M'GINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable "Pectoral Syrup." Almost everybody around us has the cold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., tell us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

J. S. WATTERSON & SON'S.

January 30th, 1860.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I have been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely. Signed,

J. W. SIMONTON,
236 Liberty St., Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?"—"Go to Keyser's on Wood street and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears almost every day in cold catching seasons of the year. As we can, from actual experience, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburg with one of the most distressing contrary, mulish, insufferable coughs we have ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1859.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP is prepared and sold by DR. GEO. H. KEYSER, STANZAS.

Though is deeper than all speech:
Feeling deeper than all thought:
Souls to souls can never teach
What unto themselves was taught.

We are spirits clad in veils:
Man by man was never seen:
All our deep communing fails
To remove the shadowy screen.

Heart to heart was never known:
Mind with mind did never meet;
We are columns left alone
Of a temple once complete.

Like the stars that gem the sky,
Far apart, though seeming near,
In our light we scattered lie;
All is thus but starlight here.

What is social company
But a babbling summer-stream?
What our wise philosophy
But the glancing of a dream?

Only when the sun of love
Melts the scatter'd stars of thought,
Only when we live above
What the dim-eyed world hath taught,

Only when our souls are fed
By the Fount which gave them birth,
And by the inspiration led
Which they never drew from earth;

We, like parted drops of rain,
Swelling till they meet and run,
Shall be all absorb'd again,
Melting, flowing into one.

THE NEST.

BY LIEUT. COL. H. R. ADDISON.

To those only who have long resided in Ireland can be known the horror inspired by a "process server,"—the abhorrence with which these poor men looked upon by every Patlander. In this quiet and orderly country, the men placed in "possession" of your property by the formalities of the law, is not only considered as the mere tool of a superior power, but is often, very often, well treated. Nay, courtesy goes so far, that he is frequently asked, during his forced sojourn, to join in all the meals and other comforts which the house affords. Not so in the sister country. The unhappy man sent in to do this unpleasant duty is not only ill treated and abused, but often becomes the victim of murderous ferocity.

One of the most remarkable illustrations of this feeling occurred some thirty years ago in the county of Clare, when a gentleman of high standing, good estate, and old family, was so irritated, that on his house being taken possession of, he actually got up in the middle of the night, and set it on fire, thus periling the lives of the two poor officials in charge. That which, however, made the case still worse, was the attempt on the part of the incendiary to cast the blame on the "men in possession;" from which charge, however, they perfectly cleared themselves, and Mr.—— was fully committed for setting fire to his own house, a somewhat strange occurrence; but several cases of thus destroying the security of creditors having lately occurred, Sir Robert Peel deemed it necessary to make it a felony. Mr.—— was the first party indicted under the new act, and would have undoubtedly escaped, had he not (as we have said) endeavored to destroy two innocent men, basing his accusation on his own personal observation. This was thought so horrible that the law was allowed to take its course, and Mr. —— was hanged in Ennis, as an example to deter those who would savagely avenge their own irregularities on the heads of those who had never injured them.

This striking fact, however, seemed to have little effect on the blood-thirsty nature of the Irish peasantry; for in the journal I was now reading there was a dreadful account of a murder committed (or, rather, discovered the day before,) on two keepers, near Killmallock. The bodies of the unfortunate men were found in a small river, about a mile from the farm house they were supposed to be in possession of; and steps had been taken to make it appear as if they had perished by accident; but this belief was at once destroyed by their skulls being found battered in, and their faces so disfigured with blows, that it was a task of great difficulty to identify them.

The account given by the farmer's family was very clear, and the testimony of each member of the circle agreed so consistently, that their evidence was scarcely to be doubted. It appeared, from their statement, that two men had taken up their residence in an adjoining barn, and that one of the daughters had carried them their frugal supper the evening before. They then seemed well primed with whiskey, and might be supposed to be in possession of still larger supplies of this intoxicating beverage. The general belief of the family was, therefore, that the two poor fellows, having got drunk, fell asleep, and, on waking, walked across the fields to bathe themselves, for the purpose of washing away their debauch; but, unfortunately, not being quite sober, they had fallen in, just where the stream was most rapid and deep, and thus fell victims to their intemperance. The wounds on their heads they supposed must have been caused by being dashed against some rocks, past which they had been carried by the stream.

The story seemed to the local authorities to be somewhat improbable; but, on strict investigation, they found the footsteps of two men clearly imprinted in several places between the door of the barn and the river, where they again appeared upon the muddy and slippery bank. The whole house was examined over and over again; but no weapon, no instrument of death, or cause of suspicion, could be discovered. Forty-eight hours were fruitlessly employed by the local magistrates, the chief constable, and the coroner, in seeking for some evidence; but all in vain. As a last resource, they wrote to Vokes, in Limerick.

Of all this—beyond the paragraph in the newspaper—I heard nothing till the entrance of the chief constable, who arrived, bearing the invitation to my intelligent retative to attend.

"Well, Mac, as they wish it, I'll go; but you may depend upon it, it is as the people say. These fellows got drunk, and slipped into the river. I'll order my carriage directly, and you and my relative here can drive over with me."

I began to make excuses.

"Oh, don't be getting out of it! If you'll come along we'll touch at——, and I'll show you the finest stud of horses in Ireland. Come, don't be fancying that there is any danger this time! I'm only going over to see my brother magistrates. By the by, I'd like to introduce you to some of them. There is no cause of alarm to any one here, is there, Mac?" turning to the police officer.

"None in the world, Major. Sure, if there had been anything, we would have discovered it without troubling you."

"You're right; but as they ask me, we'll just run over," and in half an hour more we were en route.

I confess I was not comfortable. Vokes was far too jovial to please me, and he laughed at the idea of this murder so loudly, and poohpoohed it so strongly, that I felt he was not sincere.

When within three miles of Killmallock, he, as usual, got out of his carriage, and mounted on horseback, making myself and his officers do the same. To my surprise, we found Sergeant M'Grath and six mounted policemen waiting for him with his saddle horses. The chief constable seemed more surprised than myself. If there really had been a murder, a large force ought to have been called out. If the death arose from accident, surely no policemen were requisite. The Major, however, made no remark, and we trotted across the country, followed at a distance by the constables and carriages. I adhered to my old rule of asking no questions.

Presently we came in sight of the farm house where the murder was committed. It was surrounded by (at least) five thousand persons, many of whom seemed strongly excited. I could not but feel a sensation of terror as I looked upon this lawless body. I believe my countenance must have betokened my alarm, for my relative gave me a reassuring smile. He then directed his sub to join the policemen, with direction to bring them round to the rear of the building, and jumping off his horse, motioned me to do the same. I confess I did so with reluctance, and when I handed the bridle to the boy, who had undertaken to hold the animal, I must needs admit I would have willingly dissuaded Vokes from entering the crowd, who, as he approached, gave three groans for him—a welcome they poured forth with all the venom of their souls, for many amongst them had reason to dread his power. The Major took off his hat with a smile, and laughingly thanked them, then plunged into the midst of them. Vokes had only a riding whip with him, and this instrument he did not hesitate to use when any one attempted to bar his passage, or press to closely on him. Unless I am egregiously mistaken, I read murder and vengeance in the eyes of many. But a secret and unconquerable dread of the chief magistrate, who boldly looked them in the face, seemed to restrain them.

At length we entered the cottage, in which a couple of Magistrates and several policemen loitered. These functionaries assured Vokes that, after a most lengthened and minute inquiry, they could obtain no clue to the perpetrators of the horrid deed.

The Major next interrogated the family. A more intelligent circle I never saw in my life. They gave their evidence clearly, and one of the poor girls burst into tears, as she told her story. She it was who had last seen the poor fellows, now lying dead in the adjoining barn. Vokes, after hearing their account told them he should doubtlessly require their testimony at the assizes in Limerick; to this the whole family, consisting of the father, mother, a son, and two daughters, readily assented.

He next inspected the bodies of the poor men, and, when a brother magistrate pointed out to him the probability of its having been a severe accident, the chief magistrate seemed to assent.

I now hoped all was over; but my relative again turned into the house. After examining again and again the rooms up stairs, he returned to the spacious kitchen. Here about a dozen persons were assembled. The room itself bore a look of comfort. There was a good clock. The crockery and saucepans were clean, and ranged along the wall. A goose sat hatching her eggs beside the fire place. A large house dog, apparently well fed, slept before the hearth. It was one of the cleanest Irish kitchens I ever was in.

Vokes suddenly called to a policeman.

"Pull that goose out of her nest.—That's right. Take out the eggs. Ah! what is the nest made of?"

"Some linen, Major," replied the constable.

"Let us see it, Maloney," and the next moment the man held up a large linen sheet saturated with blood. It was now dry, but there was no mistaking it.

"Seize the whole family. Handcuff them, and off with them to Limerick.—You may take my carriage, if you like it. M'Grath, jump up stairs, and, in the little room on the right hand you will find two hockey sticks. Take care how you handle them, for there is blood and clotted brains upon them that must not be rubbed off of them; and now, Mr. Martin, I think we have you," said he turning to the farmer. "No words! off with him."

"But, Major," interrupted one of the local magistrates, "Martin is a tenant of mine, and a highly respectable man. Besides, he is—"

"A murderer!"

"You are mistaken—I'll bail him—"

"Faith, my dear friend, you can't; and, what's more, you shan't. If I'm wrong, I'll take the blame. Egad, Harry, I have them," said he, turning to me. "We'll be off before the people outside are aware of it," and out they went. The people, however, seeing us without escort or prisoner, believed Voke's mission had failed, and welcomed us cheerfully as we passed through them. No time, however, was to be lost, and even before we were well out of sight of them, their frantic cries showed that they had learned our acts.

On the subsequent trial, one the sisters having turned approver (or as we call it, king's evidence,) declared that she had not only seen, but assisted in the murder. Drugged heavily with whiskey, the unsuspecting men had fallen fast asleep, when the son and two daughters stole in with hockey sticks (produced in court) and battered out their brains. They then tied their bodies in a large sheet, and the father and son carried them to a spot at least a mile down the river, where they threw them in. A faint picture of this girl, who now, without shrinking, described the assassination, and by her proved evidence gave her whole family to the scaffold, I have elsewhere sketched before.

About six weeks after the above scene in the farm house, I was ordered out with my troops as an execution party (a military duty only, I believe, exercised in Ireland); I could get no one to change with me, and I was compelled, much against my own will, to see old Martin, his wife, his daughter, and his son, hanged over the gateway of the new prison in Limerick.

☞ Senator C——, in one of his first efforts at the bar undertook to compare his client to a ship; and in his argument went on to illustrate her getting under way, heaving up anchor, unfurling sails, belaying, etc., and after using up what few sea phrases he understood, he found that he had got his ship where he could not handle her, and himself in nearly the same predicament

The Court and bar saw the dilemma he was in, his friends anxious through fear, and opponents inwardly chuckling at his evident embarrasment and probable defeat.

At this critical juncture in the fortunes of both himself and his ship, he turned to the Jude with, "If it please the Court to let me come back into port, I will never go to sea again!" He started his argument anew, and succeeded, and from that time never went to sea again, and to this early lesson may, no doubt be attributed his present eminent standing.

☞ Never waste a long explanation upon one who cannot take a hint.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first copy of a paper called the Workingmen's Advocate, recently started in Huntingdon by W. F. Shaw and —— Miller. We notice that a new political party, styled the Workingmen's Party, has been organized in that county, and the Advocate is professedly the organ thereof. We have our doubts about the success of any new political organization at the present day, nevertheless we wish our friends Shaw & Miller success in their enterprise.

We are also in receipt of a paper styled the Latrobe Inquirer, just started at Latrobe, Westmoreland county, by W. R. Boyers, and John G. W. Yeater. It is independent in politics and promises to be a good local paper. The people in that section should give it a cordial support.

"Our Paper" is the name of a new weekly paper published in Pittsburgh, by Hunt & Miner. It is gotten up on the plan of the New York Ledger, on good paper, and contains much valuable reading matter. The enterprising editors deserve the patronage of a generous public.—Terms, $2 per annum.

A SIGNIFICANT INDICATION.—A gentleman residing in Iowa writes that the land offices in different sections of the West are flooded with applications for information from Southern people. These applications are generally made in writing and refer to the state of affairs existing in the South as rendering emigration to the North desirable. Many of these applications come from as far South as Texas and Louisiana. The fact is, the "reign of terror" prevailing in the "Cotton States" must ere long drive tens of thousands of the best inhabitants away.

THE CAMBRIA COUNTY ELECTION FRAUDS.—The famous Washington township election frauds are still on the carpet in the Cambria county Court. At the late Quarter Sessions, John W. Short was found guilty of "wilful fraud in the discharge of his duty as clerk" of the election; but not sentenced. A true bill was found against Albert F. Cantwell, for the same offence, as Judge of the election, but his case was continued to the next Court.

THE FLAG OF THE AMERICAN UNION.—A few days since, Judge William Lawrence, of Logan county, Ohio, caused the following order to be entered upon the journal of his Court:—

"It is hereby ordered that the sheriff of Logan county be, and hereby is directed at every term of this Court, to erect upon the dome of the Court House in Bellefontaine, a suitable standard with the flag of the American Union thereon, and the same shall there remain during the sessions of this Court, as an evidence of devotion to the 'Constitution, the Union, and the enforcement of the laws.'"

☞ Two men in Dauphin county recently appealed to the law to settle a dispute in reference to an acre of ground worth probably $15. The jury rendered a verdict at last Court, and when the parties figured up the costs, they found themselves $500 out of pocket.

☞ We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph of Monday last, that Prof. Beverly R. Waugh, son of the late Bishop Waugh, died in that place on Sunday night last. He was in his 37th year.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE CONFEDERACY.—On Thursday about one hundred men left Baltimore for Charleston, where they propose to enlist in the army of the Southern Confederacy. They were under the command of Mr. Robert E. Haslett, who, with Mr. Thomas J. Goodrich, effected the organization, and refused to accept the services of any under nineteen years of age, or any married man. All of them voluntarily offered their services. They are to receive from twelve to seventeen dollars per month, and to serve from three to five years.

GRAIN AT CHICAGO.—The Chicago Democrat says: The amount of grain in store here by the opening of the Straits will be about five millions of bushels. There will be vessels here at that time capable of carrying about 750,000 bushels. Last spring there was about two millions of bushels in store at the opening, and vessels that could carry a million of bushels.

The Great Gaines Case.

The Supreme Court of the United States has just rendered a decision in favor of Mrs. Gaines, establishing her right to the McDonough property now in the possession of the cities of New Orleans and Baltimore. The decision places her in possession of all the immense property of Daniel Clark, of whom she is the only legitimate child. Mrs. Myra C. Gaines, the contestant in this celebrated case, furnishes the world, in her life, one of those strange eventful histories, unlooked for save in the realms of romance. Mrs. Gaines was born in Philadelphia in 1805. Her father, Daniel Clark, was a man of immense wealth, but of uncertain morals—his property lying for the most part in and about the cities of New Orleans, Baltimore, and Philadelphia. Mr. Clark, in 1801, had formed a liaison with a woman of supposed easy virtue, with whom he lived for many years, in Philadelphia. Mr. Clark's friends never recognized this woman—nor did Clark ever acknowledge her publicly as his wife, but on the contrary, it has been proved, that even after the daughter was born, he persisted in declaring that he was a bachelor. It seems, however, that some months prior to Mrs. Gaines's advent into the world, Mr. Clark was compelled or induced to marry his victim, but with the distinct understanding that the marriage should never be made public. Soon after its birth, the child was placed in the charge of a person in Baltimore, (whose name does not transpire,) by whom she was raised to womanhood. Her mother in the meantime went away from Philadelphia, but where or when, or what ever became of her is unknown. At the age of twenty-two, Myra married a Mr. Whitney, a son of the late Judge Whitney, of Binghamton, New York, by whom she became the mother of three children. Mr. Whitney died in 1836, and in 1840 she married General Gaines, of the United States army. Mrs. Gaines did not, until some years after her marriage to her first husband, know anything of her parentage; she having taken the name of the person who had charge of her, and supposed, as did her acquaintances, that the persons with whom she lived were her parents. At the death of Clark, in 1830 or 1831, his kinsmen went on to administer upon his estate, but they found a barrier in the person of Mrs. Whitney's former guardian and supposed father, who interposed a claim for his protege, and then for the first time informed her and her wondering husband, as to who and what she was. It seems that this person alone, aside from the family of Clark, knew the secret of the marriage. At first Clark's friend tried to bribe him to keep the whole matter a secret, and for a time succeeded in keeping him out of the way; but as they did not comply readily with his demands for money, he communicated the proofs more fully to Mrs. Gaines, and she set about establishing her legitimacy. She commenced her first suit against the executors of her father's estate, as long ago as 1837 or 8, and it was while in Washington attending to this business that she met General Gaines whom she married in a few months after. General Gaines appropriated the whole of his salary to ferreting out the available facts, and at last succeeded in finding the records of Clark's marriage in 1804, and he found also one or two of the witnesses who were present at the ceremony. In the first suits against the Executors she was unsuccessful, but she and her husband were determined that the stigma of illegitimacy should not rest upon her, and so to again bring the matter before the Courts, when she should be able to better prove the marriage of her parents, she commenced the present suits against Hemming and others, involving the McDonough estates and other vast amounts of property in the South and West. The case has been fought inch by inch by the other legatees; has been tried with varied successes in the Courts of a half a dozen States, until this last decision of the Court of final resort. The first legal talent in the country has been engaged on both sides, and probably no case, as Judge Wayne remarked, was ever tried in this country involving so many nice points of law and fact as this. The Court of the United States has unanimously decided that Myra Clark Gaines is the only legitimate child of Daniel Clark, and that, as such, she is entitled to all the property left by him. Nor are the years and energies of the courageous woman too far spent to prevent her enjoyment of her vast wealth. Mrs. Gaines, though now in her fifty-fifth year, is represented as being an agreeable specimen of what old people delight in calling "ladies of the old school." She is in good health, and possesses an abundant flow of animal spirits, which have buoyed her up for over thirty years under circumstances of an unusually trying nature.

NEW STEAM CAR.—The Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad Company have made arrangements to put a Steam Car on the road, to run between Huntingdon and Hopewell. The car, which is a combination of Locomotive, Passenger, and Baggage car, has been contracted for, and will be running about the first of June, and for convenience and utility, will be a popular institution. It will seat comfortably, about forty passengers, with a baggage room next to the engine, sufficient to hold the baggage, mails and Express matter. The engine will be set on the front platform within the car, and work on an entirely new principle, and will have sufficient power to haul a second car when necessary, and to run twenty-five miles an hour. We understand the Company intend to offer strong inducements to encourage and increase the travel, by a reduction of fares, and taking on and letting off passengers at any point on the road, virtually making every farm house and road crossing a station, and charging only for the distance traveled. The car is being built by Murphy & Allison, celebrated car builders in Phila. The engine by Neafie & Levy, Penn's Works, Phil'a, both being superintended by Messrs. Grice & Long, the patentees. We suppose the Passenger car on the Shoup's Run Branch will be run as usual for the accommodation of those having business at the mines, and to enable our citizens to connect with the trains for Huntingdon at Saxton.—Broad Top Miner.

KENTUCKY SAFE IN THE OLD UNION.—Ex-Secretary Guthrie delivered a speech at Louisville, Kentucky, on the 16th inst., opposing secession, and deprecating the precipitation which the seceding States had displayed. He urged that Kentucky was perfectly safe in the old Union, while she would be continually assailed should she go with the South, and insisted that there was no necessity at all for arming the State. There is to be no civil war. He believed Lincoln to be an honest man, who would march to the music of the Union, and that there would be no war unless Mr. Lincoln and his party were the most blood-thirsty beings in the world, which he did not believe. He was opposed to shaking hands with those who had deserted them in times of peril, and as he had been born in the Union, he hoped to die in its bosom.

☞ Mr. Edward P. Weston, who lately walked from Boston to Washington in ten days, is considered to have performed a remarkable feat, but he was outdone in London, in the year 1792, by one Powell, 58 years of age, who walked from the latter city to Shoreditch church, a distance of 394 miles, in 5 days 18½ hours, averaging about 72 miles per day. Weston averaged 47 miles.

SPOTTED FEVER.—A disease known as the spotted fever prevails to a considerable extent in Dauphin and Lebanon counties, Pa. It has proved fatal in a number of instances recently, baffling the skill of the physicians, and carrying off its victims quite suddenly.

Terrible Tragedy in the Pittsburgh Prison.

The county jail in Pittsburgh was the scene of a most extraordinary and bloody tragedy yesterday morning, the particulars of which are detailed by the Chronicle of Thursday evening, as follows:

A man named John Lewis, committed for vagrancy by Esquire Jancey, of Lawrenceville, was murdered in cold blood by a fellow named Andrew McMullen, with whom he had had no previous acquaintance, and to whom no provocation, whatever, was given for the commission of the dreadful deed. It appears that McMullen is of unsound mind, and some two years since was before the Court on a charge of assault and battery. The testimony showing, however, that the man was a lunatic, a verdict of acquittal in his case was rendered, and he was ordered to be sent to the Hospital for safe keeping. He remained there till about three months since, when he was discharged, apparently cured, and since then he has been leading a dissolute life, passing a part of his time in jail, and the balance among his friends, some of whom are said to be well to do and respectable citizens. Saturday morning he was committed for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, but at the time he gave no indications that his old malady had returned, or that his mind was in the least disturbed. He was placed in cell No. 18 on the ground floor, and every night since he has had one or more persons to sleep with him.

Last night the deceased was brought in and taken to McMullen's cell, where he was locked up for the night. He did not appear to be drunk at the time, and demeaned himself like a quiet inoffensive man. During the night great noise prevailed in the cell, but unfortunately the man on the guard failed to hear it, and no attempt was therefore made to ascertain the cause from which it proceeded. The fact, however, revealed itself this morning, when the turnkey came to unlock the door. On the bed inside lay stretched the body of the unfortunate Louis, his face covered with blood, and features so disfigured that recognition was barely possible. He was still living, but so near his end that but some three quarters of an hour elapsed ere his spirit had departed for another world.—Near him stood McMullen, apparently contemplating his bloody work. He had a piece of stick in his hand, which was covered with the gore of his victim, and looked stolidly on while the turnkeys shrunk with horror from the bloody spectacle before them. In reply to the interrogatories of one of them, he merely answered that he beat the deceased because he could not speak German, and declined saying more. He was removed to another cell, while his victim was washed and a physician sent for, but before he could arrive he had died.

"HIDDEN TREASURES" FOR FIFTEEN CENTS.—Among the cases on the list now before the Supreme Court of this State is a most curious one. It seems that away up in Luzerne county lived a man named Elisha Harris. He owned a large farm, and was supposed to have saved considerable money. He was an eccentric and close-fisted individual, and he lived entirely secluded and alone. In July, 1858, he died—His administrators could find no property beyond the ordinary household furniture, &c.—According to custom, they had a vendue. The vendue was well attended, it being inferred that the money which it was supposed the deceased died possessed of had been concealed somewhere, and old chests and bureaus probably never before sold so well at an up country sale. Well, one David M. Huthmacher, an honest Dutchman, went to the sale, and a nondescript article of furniture was struck off to him for fifteen cents. It was a square block of pine wood, about three feet long and ten or twelve inches square, supported by four legs, each about a foot and a half in length. On the top was a horizontal wheel, with an iron spindle attached to it. It was an outlandish affair, and it might, for all we know, have come out of the Ark, and been applied to antediluvian uses.—David paid his fifteen cents, hauled his purchase home, and threw it on the wood-pile. In course of time it came to be split open for firewood, when, lo! it was found to contain $3,754.50 in gold and silver coin and promissory notes.—David, tho' poor, was honest, and he informed the administrators of his discovery. The result was that a suit was entered to determine to whom the treasure should belong. The lower Court decided against honest David, and he appealed. Such was the case that came up a few days ago, and it occasioned much merriment.—No decision has yet been made.

A BILL FOR ONE DAY.—Mr. Lincoln and his suite stopped one day at the Delavan House, formerly a rigid temperance hotel, in Albany, but he and his wife dined with a friend. The proprietor of the hotel has presented the modest bill of $1,120 for that days's eating and drinking. There were sixteen persons in all really entertained, and the charge was therefore $70 for each. The items are curious for a Temperance house; for instance, there is the sum of $357 for wines and liquors, and $150 for broken stoves and chairs. If sixteen persons drank $357 worth of liquors, a cost of twenty-two dollars worth each, the only wonder is that they did not break their necks as well as $150 worth of stoves and chairs. This extraordinary bill beats the experience of the Japanese and English princes.

FATE OF A LADY GAMBLER.—A letter from Frankfort of the 19th ult., says: "The day before yesterday an English lady, who had resided at Homburg for some time, and who had been a constant visitor to the gambling saloons, where by degrees she had lost almost all her property, left town and went to the village of Kirdoff, about three miles distant. She ascended the tower of the new church there, and, having first tied her legs together, threw herself from the tower to the earth, a distance of about one hundred feet. When picked up she was still living, but was conveyed to the hospital at Homburg, in a deplorable condition."

DEATH FROM HYDROPHOBIA.—Mrs. Townsend, wife of a respectable farmer in Ararat, Susquehanna county, was seized with symptoms of hydrophobia while riding with Mr. Townsend, some days ago, and died during the night following. Two years ago, while crossing a field near her father's house, she was attacked by a large dog, from which she happened to escape without receiving any wound of which she was conscious. It is now supposed that the animal was mad, and the virus penetrated her system through some abraision of the skin.

TREASON DEFINED IN TEXAS.—Judge Frazier, in his charge to the grand jury, defined treason as a crime to be looked after in the event of the State withdrawing from the Union. After the State has fully and unconditionally severed the connection between the State and Federal government, then all who adhere to the Union and so manifest the fact, are guilty of treason—subject and liable to indictment by the grand jury under the constitution as it now exists. After secession, any word, deed, or act against the independence of the State would be treason.

RESUMPTION.—We have to-day to announce the unconditional resumption of specie payments by the banks in this city. It is a safe move, and cannot but add to the impression that our political complications are tending toward a peaceful result. It will, of course, be followed by the resumption of specie payments by the banks throughout this State and New Jersey.—Bulletin 16th inst.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ The name of Camp Floyd, in Utah, has been changed to Camp Crittenden.

☞ Muggins says: "It's no use in marrying now, as there is no telling how long you may remain united." He is opposed to coercion.

☞ A boy named Perry Steel threw a stone at George Graham at Milesburg, Centre county, striking one of his limbs, which mortified and the boy died.

☞ What a happy fate was that of Jonah in the whale, compared to many who wake up to find themselves, involuntary, in everybody's Mouth!

☞ A person who undertakes to raise himself by scandalizing others, might as well sit down on a wheelbarrow, and try to wheel himself

☞ A Toast—Woman—To her virtues we give love; to her beauty, our admiration; to her hoops, the whole sidewalk.

☞ The directors of the Poor of Huntingdon county have determined to withdraw all support from out-door paupers. The directors of this county should follow their example.

☞ A down-east Yankee suggests the expediency of using the "pressure of the times" as a motive power. He thinks it is strong enough, as now developed, to take a ship across the Atlantic in twenty-four hours.

☞ Miss Ellen Smith, Boston, Massachusetts, has just recovered $4,000 of Francis Clementston, for breach of promise of marriage, after twenty years' courtship. Only $200 a year for waiting so long.

☞ At Foo Chow, China, there is a bridge a mile and a half long, spanning the river between the foreign and native settlements. It is built entirely of granite, rests on one hundred and eighty arches, and is about one hundred years old.

☞ It is said that "after an exciting debate in the Senate, Wigfall was understood to have asked Seward privately for a chew of tobacco, and that Seward replied that he had none but Union Twist; whereupon Wigfall telegraphed to the Southern States that they must prepare for war, as the Republicans would not yield."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Card to the Suffering.

The Rev. Wm. Cosgrove, while laboring as a missionary in Japan, was cured of Consumption, when all other means had failed, by a recipe obtained from a learned physician residing in the great city of Jeddo. This recipe has cured great numbers who were suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds, and the debility and nervous depression caused by these disorders.

Desirous of benefitting others, I will send this recipe, which I brought home with me, to all who need it, free of charge.

Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial.

Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial is remarkable for its wonderful beneficial effects in the treatment of children. For croup, dysentery, and teething, it has never been surpassed, and mothers should at all times be provided with a supply, as they value the lives and the comfort of their little ones.

The preparations of Blood Food are among the most important discoveries of the age. They are not medicines, but food for the blood: already prepared for absorption, pleasant to the taste, and natural in action; and what one gains, he retains. The Blood Food is a scientific discovery, differing from all patent medicines; and for consumption, throat diseases, liver complaints, dyspepsia, and other diseases incident to the human frame, is unequalled for its healing and strengthening qualities.—Columbia, Ohio, Gazette. See advertisement.

Chills and Fever! Chills and Fever!!

One of the greatest remedies that has ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which have received the highest encomiums from the press and the people, is Dr. Hostetter's Celebrated Bitters. Who would endure the tortures arising from the terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers and icy chills, alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families linger out a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved. None but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony. Sold by druggists and dealers generally everywhere. See advertisement in another column.

DR. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN PILLS FOR FEMALES.

Infallible in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventative

There is not a lady living but what at some period of her life needs just such a medicine as "Duponco's Golden Pills." One of the first ladies of Chester told the Agent there that she had received so much benefit from the use of them, she would be willing to pay $5 a box, rather than be without them, if she could get them no less. The ingredients composing these pills are made known to every Agent. They will tell you they are perfectly harmless and yet will do all claimed for them. Full and explicit directions accompany each box. Price $1.00 per box.—Sold by G. W. KESSLER, Druggist, sole Agent for Altoona, Pa.

Ladies by sending him $1.00 to the Altoona Post Office, can have the pills sent to any part of the country (confidentially) by mail, "free of postage." Sold also by JOHN READ, Huntingdon, and by one Druggist in every village town and city in the State.

S. D. HOWE,
Sole Proprietor, New York.

N. B.—The above Pills have been counterfeited, and are offered to Ladies at prices ranging from 25 cents to 75 cts (dear at that.) Look out for them. The genuine, hereafter, will bear the signature of S. D. Howe, sole proprietor. Price—$1. Purchase of the above gentlemen, and you will find the genuine article, and one you may rely upon.

Cephalic Pills

NERVOUS HEADACHE
All kinds of Headache

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diret, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

LOCAL ITEMS.

ROWDYISM.—Rowdyism is fast on the increase in our borough. For some time past, our streets have nightly been made to resound with yells, as though his satanic majesty had turned loose upon earth a few of the inmates of his habitation, who, revelling in riot and drunkenness, make night hideous with their yelling, profanity and blackguardism, rendering themselves ridiculous and almost unendurable. We have always boasted of the quiet of our town in this respect, and the high moral character of our citizens, but we are led to fear that our boasting will soon be turned to censure if this state of things continues. The "turbulents" generally are young men who have just arrived at the age at which they take their places in the world on their own responsibility. Their characters are now being formed, but alas! we fear for anything else than useful lives. We think it high time that steps were taken to initiate a reformation in this matter, that our youths, with dignity and pride, might walk the paths of rectitude, sobriety and virtue, thus crowning themselves with honor, and fitting themselves to fill, in future life, the various positions which must necessarily fall to their lot, when those who now hold them shall have gone on that journey "whence no traveller returns." Reformation is needed, but how shall it be accomplished, so long as parents will allow their children the liberty of prowling the streets at unseasonable hours? So long as parents permit this breach of trust which belongs to them, and for which they will be held accountable by a higher than human tribunal, so long will moral sunsion prove ineffectual and sink into insignificance when the allurements of night, to vice and immorality, are ever spread before the unwary. We wish that we could say something which would induce parents to look after their boys when they are not found around the hearthstone at home at the proper retiring hour. Could we do so, we feel sure that we would have accomplished a work equal to that of the greatest benefactor of the human race, for the reason that thereby many boys who are now forming habits which will result in their ultimate misery and ruin, and bring their parents in sorrow to the grave, would be saved to usefulness and happiness, not only to themselves, but to all around them.

But this rowdyism, which we noticed at the head of this article must be stopped. If one police officer is not sufficient to check it, more should be appointed. It is not to be presumed that peaceable citizens are to be annoyed at all hours of the night, by a band of outlaws, and have no redress therefor. Some of the young men who have made a practice of misbehaving upon the streets at night, may yet find themselves the tenants of the "Lock-Up."

THE ANNUAL CRISIS.—The first of April is near at hand. Already in elongated countenances, pallid cheeks, quivering lips, and hurried steps of those we meet in our walks, are manifested the indubitable tokens of that rapidly approaching crisis which will test the capacity of pockets, and try the depth of purses.—Complaints are many and multiplying of scarcity of the ready pewter wherewith to satisfy duns and compose creditors. Our household gods look desponding and afflicted in view of approaching trials; while the housekeepers, who are easy and amiable eleven months in the year, are relentlessly routing cracked crockery from corner cup-boards, and banishing to back boudoirs the boots and beavers of better days. Our county officers, lawyers and scriveners are taking early breakfasts to meet the increasing demands upon their time and services—money lenders are pouring over their bonds and bank books, figuring up the amount they will have on hand for the accommodation of their needing and numerous friends—borrowers are as busy as bees, looking out in time for the wherewithal to meet their various engagements—while business people generally are stirring about with more than usual energy and activity, "getting ready for the first." May all be prepared for the crisis!

MISTAKES.—Mistakes are one of the severest plagues of a printer's life, for the reason that everybody gets to see his mistakes, and everybody thinks that he or she has a certain inalienable right to say or think whatever he or she pleases about such mistakes Printers, to a degree, are privileged characters, and their charactors and faults appear to be the privilege of others, but they don't take half the liberty with the faults of others which others do with theirs. Very frequently we find, after our edition is off, that a word, or a line, which we had written, was left out or misplaced by the compositor, just at a point where the sense would be destroyed. Of course we have then no remedy but to correct next week, and ten chances to one, it is forgotten, and passed on from week to week, and is never corrected. Our compositors made a grievious mistake in our article on the death of Mrs. McCrea, last week, by leaving out a full line. The sentence should have read: "She was a woman of robust and healthy appearance, and, to human observation, bid fair to live out her three-score years [illegible] third of those by whom she was sur-

THE PRINTER'S ESTATE.—The printer's dollars! Where are they? A dollar here and a dollar there, scattered over numerous small towns, all over the country, miles and miles apart—how shall they be gathered together?—The type founder has his hundreds of dollars against the printer; the paper maker, the building owner, the journeyman compositor, the grocer, the tailor, and all assistants to him in carrying on his business, have their demands, hardly ever so small as a single dollar. But the mites from here and there must be diligently gathered and patiently hoarded, or the wherewith to discharge the large bills will never become bulky. We imagine the printer will have to get up an address to his widely scattered dollars, something like the following: "Dollars, halves, quarters, dimes, and all manner of fractions into which ye are divided, collect yourselves and come home! Ye are wanted! Combinations of all sorts of men, that help the printer to become a proprietor, gather in such force and demand with such good reasons your appearance at his counter, that nothing short of a sight of you will appease them. Collect yourselves, for valuable as you are in the aggregate, single you will never pay the cost of gathering. Come in here in single file, that the printer may form you into a battalion, and send you forth again to battle for him and vindicate his feeble credit." Reader, are you sure you havn't a couple of the printer's dollars sticking about your clothes?

MAGIC, VENTRILOQUISM, ETC.—Our exchanges throughout the country, wherever Prof. H. Sands, the world renowned Magician and Ventriloquist, has performed, are loud in their commendations of his skill in all he attempts, and he attempts and completes successfully every feat ever performed by a magician. One of our exchanges says of him that he is a Ventriloquist, Magician and Humorist of the first water, and advises all who are suffering with the blues, all who wish amusement, all who wish to "laugh and grow fat," to attend Prof. S's lectures. He exposes spiritualism and table turnings. Of one thing we are well satisfied, and that is, that he is one of the best slight-of-hand performers with whom we have ever met. He gave us a few demonstrations in our office yesterday (Wednesday) which perfectly convinced us that his entertainment, to be given at Logan Hall, this (Thursday) evening, will well repay the attendance of all our citizens. Admittance— gentlemen 25 cents—gentleman and lady 35 cents. By all means go and see Prof. Sands.

☞ Pleasant—the weather and Roush's three cent cigars—Tribune of last week.

The weather clerk came well nigh getting us into a scrape that time, the proprietor of the cigars mentioned above having threatened to indict us for slander. Verily, the weather at this season is as fickle as the fair sex. Now, when we penned that article, the weather was pleasant. Just so it is with the so called angels of this mundane sphere; about the time a young man thinks he is going to make a capital "hit," the object of his affections is off with some "other dear charmer." But a truce to soliloquy—let the weather and the girls prove fickle if they will, but Roush's cigars are pleasant at all times of the day and seasons of the year.

HARD TIMES AND WANTS.—Virtue wants more admirers; Vice more opponents; Truth more real friends; Falsehood fewer repeaters; Wisdom more supplicants; Honesty more practitioners. The trade wants more profit, or less envy of his more fortunate neighbor. Religion wants less said about the theory and more done in the way of practice. Philanthropy wants a residence and Fidelity an asylum. Love, Charity and our Banks want to be in better credit.—Pride wants to be discarded and modest diffidence introduced. Every old Bachelor wants a wife, and every girl of sixteen a husband.—Every Creditor wants his bill paid, and every Debtor wants money to pay it, and, finally, every body is wanted to mind his own business and let that of his neighbor's alone.

DEALERS IN STRAW AND MILLINERY GOODS.—When your object is to purchase the finest, best and most varied assortment of goods in your line at the lowest rates, visit the establishment of Messrs. LINCOLN, WOOD & NICHOLS, No. 725 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. We refer to their card, in our columns, with pleasure, and do not exaggerate when we tell you that this is one of the most extensive houses of its kind in the United States. Do not fail to visit these headquarters of fashion before purchasing stale goods from third rate houses at advanced prices.

A good name, easily to be remembered, heads the firm:

Just keep "a thinkin"
Of "Uncle Abe Lincoln,"
When you want to know
Where to go—a la mode.

NEW ROUTE AGENTS.—The work of decapitation goes bravely on at Washington, and the heads of Democratic officials are constantly rolling off the block. The heads of Messrs. Sargent and Kacy, Route Agents between this place and Harrisburg, have felt the power of the official guillotine, to make room for our townsman, George C. Ferree, Esq., who takes the place of Col. Kacy, and for our young friend Sol. Books, of Mifflintown, Juniata county, who takes the place of Mr. Sargent. On the ground of services to party, the new appointees deserved their places and will make efficient agents.

R. R. ACCIDENT.—The Express Train East, on Wednesday night last, ran over some cattle which were on the track between Petersburg and Huntingdon, throwing the baggage car down an embankment and upsetting the stove, thereby setting fire to the mails and baggage therein, most of which were burned before they could be got out. The mails from this place were burned.

FIRST OF APRIL CHANGES.—Those of our subscribers who intend removing their places of residence about the first of April, and desiring the places of sending their papers changed, will be good enough to give us timely notice of their wish in the matter. Early attention to this matter will save trouble, and prevent the loss of papers.

PALM SUNDAY AND HOLY WEEK.—Last Sunday, the last before Easter, was Palm Sunday, so called in commemoration of the entry of Christ into Jerusalem, when the multitude went forth to meet him and strewed branches of palm in his way. It is observed by peculiar services in all the Catholic and in some of the Protestant churches. The present week is called Holy Week in commemoration of the passion and death of the Saviour, and each day will be observed in all the Catholic churches. On Friday the churches will be clad in mourning until Sunday, when the resurrection will be commemorated by a religious jubilee.

ARRESTED.—On Tuesday morning last, a German, named Stitzel, living near McAuley & Co.'s Planing Mill, in North Ward, was arrested on a warrant issued at the instance of Mr. McAuley, charging him with stealing lumber. The premises of Stitzel were searched, and a quantity of the lumber found. On the representation of Stitzel that his boys had stolen the lumber, Mr. McA. did not proceed against him, and the case was compromised by Stitzel paying five dollars for the lumber and costs of action.

☞ We have received the following with the request that we should give it a place in our columns:—

On the 25th inst., I received from the Rev. J. Twigg ten dollars as due to me from some unknown source. MARY SHERMER.
Altoona, March 25, 1861.

MARRIED:

At the Exchange Hotel, Altoona, Pa., March 21st, 1861, by the Rev. C. L. Ehrenfeld, Mr. ISRAEL GRAZIER of Warrior's Mark to Miss CAROLINE BECK of Canoe Valley, Huntingdon Co., Pa.

On the 21st inst., by the Rev. J. N. Burket, Mr. MICHAEL STOVER, of Cambria Co. to Miss NANCY J. HANNAH, of Clearfield Co., Pa.

In Petersburg, on the 13th inst., by Rev. W. Kidder, Mr. JONATHAN STITLER, of Frankstown tp., Blair co., to Mrs. JANE PHINNEY, of Petersburg.

On the 17th inst., by Elias Dell, Esq., Mr. SAMUEL PRESSEL to Miss MATILDA LEWIS, all of Claysburg, Blair co.

DIED.

In Logan township, on Friday last, Mr. FREDERICK YINGLING, in the 83rd year of his age.

In Frankstown township, on the 20th inst., BENNIE, son of David and Jane H. McKillip, aged 19 months and 10 days.

In Williamsburg, Feb. 19th, MARY N. HUYETT, daughter of Wm. G. & Elizabeth Huyett, in the 16th year of her age.

At Shavers Creek, Huntingdon co., Pa., on the 3d inst., NO. IRVINE, Esq., formerly of Williamsburg, at an advanced age.

On Sunday evening, the 17th inst., Mrs. MARY ANN, wife of Chas. R. McCrea, of Altoona, in the 45th year of her age.

Suddenly and unexpectedly the stern messenger came amongst us, and snatched away from our midst one of the brightest ornaments there.

Little did the writer think when he began the services on that calm Sabbath evening, that ere he should conclude, one of the most attentive of his audience would quit the prison house of clay and become the companion of spirits in an eternal world. But before the closing sorg of praise had died away, there was one less worshipper on earth.

The deceased had left home in the evening apparently in her usual health, to attend the regular services in the Baptist Church, where among the last she took her accustomed seat. When the introductory services were almost completed, she arose and passed out of the house in company with a young lady living in her family. The general impression in the minds of the audience no doubt was that some slight indisposition had caused her to retire, for nothing unusual had been noticed in her manner or appearance. In a short time however a messenger entered and communicated to some of the audience the intelligence that Mrs. McCrea was dying.

Several persons passed out and the minds of all became somewhat excited with the idea that something unusual had taken place. Consequently the services were rendered as brief as possible and the congregation dismissed.

What was our surprise when at that moment a messenger brought the tidings that the vital spark had fled.

We have since learned from the female companion who retired with her, that after leaving the church door, with much difficulty, and by the assistance of her friend, she reached the house of Mrs. Cauffman, near by, to which place Doctors Christy and Findley and her family were summoned, who did all that could be done to alleviate her sufferings. But human skill and sympathy could not stay the shaft, and in about half an hour after she left the church her soul had taken its flight. She retained her reason and was able to converse with those around her almost to the moment of her dissolution.

It is the opinion of at least the Physician with whom we conversed on the subject, that her death was caused by disease of the heart, which may perhaps have been making its inroads for months past unknown to the deceased or her friends.

Thus suddenly from this world of care has been called one who was esteemed by all. In her death the poor have lost a benefactor, the friendless a sympathizer, and her now bereaved companion one who was all a wife should be. While her motherless children may well say each to the other:

Come nearer, brother, nearer,
And sit beside me here.
The day is slowly fading,
And twilight's shades draw near,
The cloud of grief is keeping
Its shadows on our brow,
And mists have gathered o'er our hearts;
We have no mother now.

No mother now to bless us;
We've laid her down to rest,
And all our joys seem buried,
Close folded to her breast.
The vacant chair upon the hearth,
The hours that come and go,
All seem to whisper sadly
We have no mother now.

Altoona, March 23, 1861.

At a stated meeting of ALTOONA DIVISION, S. of T., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It hath pleased God in the afflictive dispensation of his providence, to call suddenly from our midst, Mrs. Mary Ann McCrea, an esteemed "Lady Visitor," of Altoona Division, No. 311, Sons of Temperance, a lady whose social and moral virtues have won for her the confidence and esteem of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and

WHEREAS, During her continuance with our order as a "Lady Visitor" she has evinced by precept and example, the most lively interest in, and zealous devotion to the cause of Temperance. Therefore,

Resolved, That whilst we deeply deplore the loss of a worthy friend and co-laborer in the Temperance reform, we cherish the earnest hope, that she has gone to enjoy that better land, where toil and sorrow, pain and death are forever excluded.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with brother McCrea and family, on account of the sad and sudden bereavement they have been called upon to experience; the former the loss of an amiable and affectionate wife; the latter the loss of a kind and devoted mother.

Resolved, That we profit by this impressive admonition of God's providence, and prepare for that solemn transition, which, sooner or later, inevitably awaits us.

Resolved, That the above preamble and resolutions be published in the Altoona Tribune, Hollidaysburg Register and Democratic Standard, and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.—[Extract from Minutes].

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,
The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:
Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.
Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.
Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.
Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to fit me out of the suds.
Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.
Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

MEDICAL AND CHEMICAL REFORM.
ADVICE FREE.
New-York Benevolent Infirmary,
ESTABLISHED 1856,
And devoted to The Cause of Medical Reform; to the Diffusion of Medical Knowledge for the Prevention of Disease, and to the relief of those suffering and afflicted with Chronic and Virulent Disorders. To this end this Infirmary is endowed, to enable the sick and suffering throughout the length and breadth of our land, to avoid the Poisonous Drugs, Extortion, and Ignorance of professed Physicians, through which thousands and tens of thousands annually perish.
The following are some of the diseases we cure, not only at the Infirmary but in all parts of our country:
Consumption and Pulmonary Complaints, Fevers, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Eye and Ear Disease, Cancers and other Tumors, Jaundice and Liver Complaint, Seminal Weakness, and all diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, from whatever cause or whatever nature. Our object will be to give joy to the afflicted by effecting in all cases a speedy cure.
Our rule is to charge nothing for advice and written prescriptions; but will furnish when requested the very best medicines at the lowest rates.
These remedies are prepared in our own Laboratory, under the care of able Chemists, and are the most reliable known to science, including all the recent discoveries.
To all addressing us by letter, containing full account of symptoms and appearances of disease, age, occupation, &c., we will write a candid reply, with advice and directions for cure. Any fees sent us when sending for advice will be devoted to furnishing medicine for the poor. In all cases medicine can be sent by mail or express if desired. Send for one or more of our works and judge for yourselves.
Also published at the Infirmary, to aid these objects,

CHILDREN TEETHING
MRS. WINSLOW, AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE PHYSICIAN, presents to the attention of mothers her
SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,
which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation, will allay pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and Relief and Health to your Infants.
We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed, in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak of this matter "what we do know," after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.
This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in thousands of cases.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.—We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
Sold by Druggists throughout the world, and by G. W. Keesler and A. Roush, druggists, Altoona. Price 25 cents per bottle.

LABOR-SAVING WASHING MACHINE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING purchased the right for Blair county, of Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine,

are now manufacturing them at Altoona, and intend to supply them to those persons throughout the county who desire a LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

This machine is got up on an entirely new principle, and is considered, by those who have seen it in use, the best that has ever been brought before the public.

Among the many advantages of this machine over all others may be mentioned the following:

1st. Its simplicity of construction, making it almost impossible to get out of order.

2d. Its speed, which astonishes alike the operator and the looker on.

3rd. The facility with which it adapts itself to the bulk or quntity of clothes desired to be washed.

4th. It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric or the coarsest and heaviest, such as bed-quilts, comforts, blankets, &c.

McMINN & DERN.
Altoona, Blair County, Pa.

We the undersigned, hereby certify that we are now using Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine and are fully satisfied that it is a very excellent article of the kind; combining as it does great speed with little labor, and performing its work in the most satisfactory manner. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a real labor-saving washing machine.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and curing it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thining, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

Wholesale Depot, 56 Dey St., and sold by all the principal Merchants and Druggists throughout the world.

Liberal discount to purchasers by the quantity.

I also desire to present to the American Public my

New and Improved Instantaneous LIQUID HAIR DYE

which after years of scientific experimenting I have brought to perfection. It dyes Black or Brown instantly without injury to the Hair or Skin, warranted the best article of the kind in existence.

Price, Only 50 Cents.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVE NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, and INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description:—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

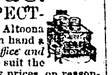
EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.



I have just received a stock of No. 1 French Brandy, for medicinal purposes.

Also a large stock of excellent Wines, for medicinal purposes, together with a lot of the best old Rye Whiskey to be found in the country.

Altoona, May 27, 1859.-1y] JOHN BOWMAN.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along and will want an outfit I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because as the season advances the merchants in the east say prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of

LADIES' DRESS GOODS

for the season, also a full assortment of

GROCERIES,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
LADIES' SHAKER BONNETS,

Misses' Felt and Straw Hats, and everything in the line of Dry Goods and Notions which it is unnecessary to enumerate. All of which will be sold for cash, or to prompt paying monthly customers, or exchanged for all articles of Produce which can be consumed here or exchanged for goods in the East.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING

Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
